To: David Loya, Planning Commission Chair Scott Davies, Vice Chair Dan Tagney, Commissioner Joel Yodowitz

A very small correction to the Minutes of the April 23, 2024 PC meeting.
But perhaps important to Commissioner Yodowitz.
He didn't recuse himself because he is part owner in a restaurant, but because his restaurant is 700-900 feet from the applicant's property.
We don't want a precedent of him recusing himself when there is a restaurant on the agenda.

Thank you.

Currently:
Commissioner Yodowitz recused himself citing the potential perception of a conflict of interest since he is part owner in a restaurant.

Change to -- add the bold section:
Commissioner Yodowitz recused himself citing the potential perception of a conflict of interest since he is part owner in a restaurant that is seven hundred to nine hundred feet from the applicant's property.

Commissioner Yodowitz said:
"I have an ownership interest in Carriage House, which is a restaurant that's seven to 900 feet from the applicant's property, and under the relevant FPPC regulations it's not entirely clear whether I have a conflict of interest or not because of that. But I'm going to err on the side of being conservative and recuse myself."
