

California Office of Historic Preservation

OHP Local Government Workshop June 8, 2018 in Eureka

The Office of Historic Preservation (OHP) is heading north for the next Local Government Preservation Workshop. OHP staff will join their hosts, the cities of Eureka and Arcata, to provide a full day of preservation topics important to local governments. Included will be sessions on survey and landmark designations as part of the planning process, CEQA and historical resources, and a panel discussion on the Mills Act. A roundtable discussion is also on the schedule as well as plenty of time for questions and sharing of best practices. Join us for what promises to be an informative and productive day!

Date: June 8, 2018

Time: 9:00 am to 3:30 pm

Location: Wharfinger Building, 1 Marina Way, Eureka, CA

Local Government Workshops are free, but advanced registration is required.
